Greetings Sunshine Retreads and fellow riders. WOW isn't it great to be in Florida!! While we look at the newscast from northern states or some of the sports being played in their bad weather we realize how blessed we are.

On the following page you will see some directions put together by Bobby Farris on how to locate and use our website. Check out his pictures of the recent Nature Coast State Ride-In, it looks like they had a good turn out. Bobby has put a ton of information on the website.

Our next big event is our annual Fellowship Luncheon in Daytona (flyer included). We have a great guest speaker in Shelly Rossmeyer Pepe (general manager of Bruce Rossmeyer Harley Davidson). She said she may bring one of those new water cooled Harleys.

This year we will be giving out gift cards from Publix and Lowes as our door prizes.

We will need some help with the 50/25/25, door prizes and goodies sales, please step forward and volunteer!

Tallahassee News Janice Gargus

On our trip- Key West or bust, we stopped by Ichetucknee State Park, about a 2 hour drive south from Tallahassee. In the center of the State.

We had a nice visit at Ichetucknee State Park. It was so much bigger than I remember, and gorgeous. We spend easy 3 hours there. It has a North, South and tram entrance. Yes, it even has a tram to take you around the park. You can easily spend the day there and not even rent a raft.

The rafts to rent are cheap, around $13 all day (the two seater) , they have 4 seaters also, and the water clear as a bell and cold. (ala Wakulla Springs). There are walking trails, playgrounds, a real nice campground, canoes and kayaking. I can see why this place is so popular. I had no idea...

This is a great day ride and you have to bring a picnic lunch during off season (concession stand during the summer) , but very enjoyable. We met several people on the river even though it is closed until the "season".
